

Some of Laura's Favorite Evergreen/Semi-Evergreen Plants

Sun- 6 hours or more of sun

Skullcap, evergreen, low and tidy- flowers red, pink and purple

Euryops daisy, evergreen, neat and clean-flowers yellow

Snow rose, evergreen small shrub 2-3'-flowers white

Roses, shrub, Earthkind® and groundcover roses- all colors, Knock Out® roses especially

Rosemary, evergreen, light blue flowers in winter

Mexican Honeysuckle, gray green foliage, semi evergreen flowers orange

Hollies, evergreen-red berries in winter

Star Jasmine, evergreen vine-flowers white

Part Sun- Morning full sun or 3-6 hours of sun (not hot sun)

Fringe Flower, evergreen shrub, outstanding color-fuchsia flowers

Dwarf Ruellia, long bloom season

Mexican Honeysuckle, gray green foliage, semi evergreen-flowers orange

Japanese Yew, evergreen, interesting shape

Sedums, some are semi evergreen, low and neat

Shade or filtered (not too deep) bright to 4 hours "cool sun"

*Variegated Ginger, can die back if cold enough but comes back

Camellia, evergreen, winter color-flowers lots of colors (great in containers)

Gardenia, evergreen, flowers cream color

Heavenly bamboo, evergreen, reddish winter color

Holly fern, evergreen

Honorable Mention

Plumbago

Mexican Olive

Magnolia, evergreen (especially Teddy Bear)

Palms

Crepe Myrtles, deciduous but interesting bark and beautiful flowers

Cenizo or Texas Sage